I hear the trumpet Sounding clearly on the wall
Awaken all you prodigals Stand up from the mud

Enough is enough He will fight there for us
You were born for a greater end Enough is enough

Rise up holy nation, enough is enough
Abandon your distractions, enough is enough
I hear the trumpet sounding clearly on the wall
Enough is enough; He will fight there for us

Our God is a mighty warrior
Our God is holy and just
We are His holy bride
Enough is enough

Wake up you fathers; purify your tents
Defend your sons' destinies, enough is enough
Awaken all you prodigals; stand up from the mud
You were born for a greater end, enough is enough

Our God is a mighty warrior
Our God is holy and just
We are His sons
Enough is enough

Our God is a mighty warrior
Our God is holy and just
We are His army
Enough is enough
