

ONE DAY

One day the world will find it's soul.
One day the body will be made whole.
One day the promise of heaven on earth will come to pass.
One day we'll sing a blissful song.
We'll sing it loud. We'll sing it long.
One day the promise of heaven on earth will come to pass.
Don't know where! Don't know when!
How it will start! How it will end!
Only know... that heaven on earth... will come again.
One day the planet will be at peace.
One day the people will be at ease.
One day the promise of heaven on earth will come to pass.

One day the dollar will rule no more.
One day the gospel will be the lore.
One day the promise of heaven on earth will come to pass.
One day the rich will share with the poor.
One day the poor rejoice for sure.
One day the promise of heaven on earth will come to pass.
Don't know where! Don't know when!
How will it start! How it will end!
Only know... that heaven on earth... will come again!
One day the planet will be at peace.
One day the people will be at ease.
One day the promise of heaven on earth will come to pass.
