

WE ALL MUST FALL

At times when I think I'm something great or a little bit more than I should,
I need to get back to the feet of the one whose hands were nailed to the wood.
My hope is in Him and all that He's done, I'm nothing on my own.
The foot of the cross is the only way to see His holy throne.

At the foot of the cross, we all must fall, from the very great to the very small.
It's on His Holy name we all must call. At the foot of the cross we all must fall.

We can fall to his feet and call out His name, here now in this life.
We can trust in Him who paid the price to free us from all strife.
Or we can wait till the day we face him as judge, with no hope left at all.
But either way, the scripture tells us, one day we're all gonna fall!

At the foot of the cross, we all must fall, from the very great to the very small.
It's on His Holy name we all must call. At the foot of the cross we all must fall.
