

LORD OF GLORY

You came down from Heaven, and God became man.
You laid down Your life as a part of the plan.
You rose and You showed death your great victory,
and promised that someday you'd come back for me.

Lord of Glory, you hung on that tree.
Mighty King, you died there for me.
Savior, Redeemer, your blood set me free.
Giver of all life, it's you I shall seek.

I love you, my savior, for all that you've done.
You loved me before my life had begun.
I give you my life. I lay my will down
To the one who wore that thorny crown.

Lord of Glory, you hung on that tree.
Mighty King, you died there for me.
Savior, Redeemer, your blood set me free.
Giver of all life, it's you I shall seek.

Help me daily be more pleasing to you.
Mold me, change me, restore and renew.
I want to be less so that you can be all.
Humbly before Your feet I fall.

Lord of Glory, you hung on that tree.
Mighty King, you died there for me.
Savior, Redeemer, your blood set me free.
Giver of all life, it's you I shall seek.
