

Fear Not (words and music by Richard Blauvelt)

Fear not; Fear not;
The Lord God Almighty watches over you.
Fear not; Fear not;
His promise is certain and His word always true. (2x)

You are My child, hear what I say.
Let My word bring you comfort and rest.
I am your Father, don't be afraid.
My love for you never ends.

Fear not; Fear not;
The Lord God Almighty watches over you.
Fear not; Fear not;
His promise is certain and His word always true.

Love and compassion flow from My throne to those who are called by My name.
I will protect them, I call you them my own for they have been redeemed.

Fear not; Fear not;
The Lord God Almighty watches over you.
Fear not; Fear not;
His promise is certain and His word always true.

Though you pass through deep waters, He'll be by your side;
Though the river's bank does overflow.
Though you pass through the fire where none can reside
He's promised you'll not go alone. (2x)

(musical interlude)

Though you pass through deep waters, He'll be by your side;
Though the river's bank does overflow.
Though you pass through the fire where none can reside
He's promised you'll not go alone.

Though you pass through the valley, the shadow of death
His rod and His staff are your guide.
When the enemy strikes and your put to the test
the Lord of Host stands by your side.

Fear not; Fear not;
The Lord God Almighty watches over you.
Fear not; Fear not;
His promise is certain and His word always true.
