

As We Walk

P J Batza

1. As we walk, the won-der ne-ver cea - ses; Have you eyes, to
2. Who can know, the ways of God a mys - t'ry; Here be - low, see
3. Though the world may seem to be at peace, their trou-bled hearts run see the hand of God? Ev - ry day, but hid - den in the creas - es; men call ev - il right. Yet we know, He works all things for good and to and fro for rest. Come be free, the wealth of earth will fail you;

mys - ter - ies a - midst the path we trod. Dy - ing we live, Midst the dark, is where we will shine bright. Walk now by faith,
Find in Him, the tre - asure bright and best. In moth and rust, los - ing we gain, bro - ken and low, we but Kings who reign.

judge not by sight; All things made clear, in His Ho - ly Light.
lost men will trust. For - sake it all, come now, hear His call.