Dark - ness on the sec - ond day, dark-ness deep Dark - ness in this soul of mine, dark-ness deep

in - side the tomb.
in - side of me.

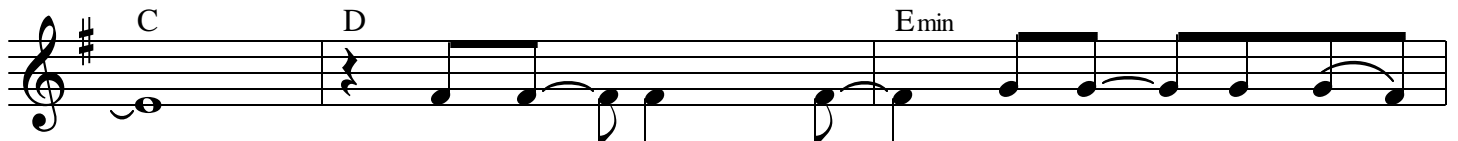

This is the night
I stand be - fore

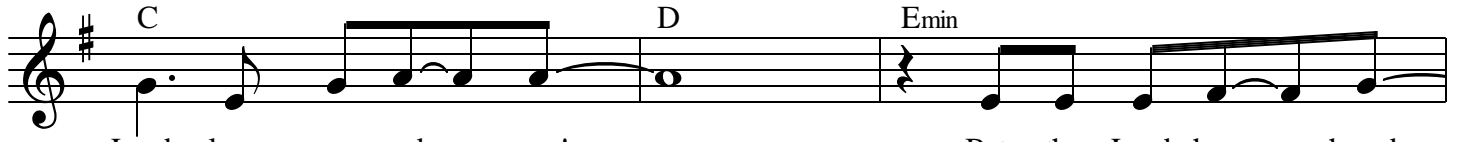

of sor - row, the night of death and gloom.
a mir - ror my sin star - ing back at me.

How can love and hope and life lie bur - ied in the grave?
Locked in - side a pri - son tomb of guilt and mis - er - y.

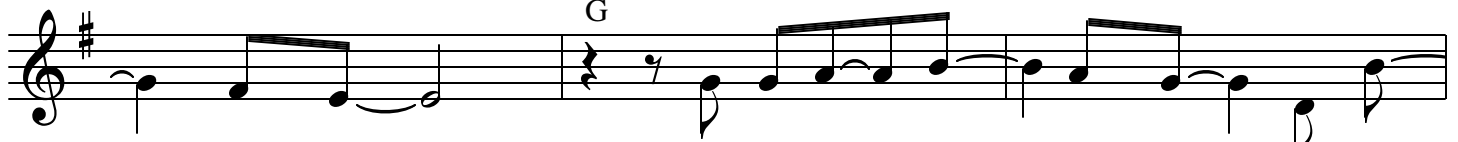

O Lord, don't leave your peo - ple, O
The stone that holds me in is

Lord, please come and save!
weigh - ing down on me.

But the Lord has heard
But the Lord has heard

our cry!
my cry!

And as the light draws nigh, the prom -
And as the light draws nigh, new life

ise of new life is com - ing true.
he sends in - to my ach - ing soul.
