Verse 1:

Child of mine, this is the very first time

That I can look into your eyes

And see the perfect smile

Tiny toes, soon your feet will grow

With every step you take

There'll be choices on the way

Chorus:

As you walk this road

Faith and love will lead you

My arms are here to hold you

When you feel all alone

There's no need to look afar

My hands are here to guide you home

Verse 2:

Nows the time for your heart to shine

May you live your life for others

Instead of earthly treasures

I'll watch you grow as your life unfolds

When you spread your wings you'll soon be gone

But I'll be here to cheer you on
