

OPEN THE EYES OF YOUR SERVANT (2 Kings 2:8-22)

The enemy king had surrounded the town and said Elisha the prophet must die.

The prophet's terrified servant saw the great army,
"What do we do, Lord?" he cried.

Elisha said simply, "Don't be afraid. You see, there's more of us than of them."

Elisha prayed for his servant that God would show him
How He would spare them again.

CHORUS

Open the eyes of your servant. Help him now, my Lord, to see,
That those who are with us are more than those against us,
And by your strength we are free.

The Lord opened his eyes so that when he looked out, he saw the Army of God all around.

With horses of fire and chariots of glory,
So many that he couldn't count.

Elisha then prayed, "Lord, strike them with blindness!" and the enemy just couldn't see.

Elisha led the whole army to the king of Israel
And by God's power was free.

CHORUS

Elisha told the King of Israel, "You shall not harm them this day!
Just throw them a feast and show them God's mercy.
Then send them back on their way!"

CHORUS.
